Subject: RE: spill statements -- right now

Bob and Paul called me about this again (Carla told them Stacey had left for day). They left a voicemail. They were calling to make sure they were adequately coordinating, etc. Among other things, they are reaching out to their counterparts in the other affected regions (e.g., Reg. 6) to make sure everyone on same page. There are frequent questions from the RAs, as well as from press, etc.

Apparently there will be a series of calls this weekend, and they wanted to know if OGC wanted/need to be on those calls. The next one may be tomorrow at 4 pm Eastern.

They didn't ask for an immediate call back, so I thought best thing would just be to give you guys this information.

Stacey – do you want to call or email Bob and Paul and coordinate with them directly, either today or tomorrow?

Avi – are you expecting to be on these calls over the weekend? Stacey?

Thanks,

Ethan
